THINGS TO DO THANKSGIVING BREAK

Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade

From 77th Street to 34th Street

There isn't a more iconic holiday event in New York City than the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade.

In 2021, the 95th installment of the annual parade is a return to form! Following 2020's digital version of the parade, this year it's back to being another epic start to the holiday season with giant balloons, fantastic floats & amazing performers. Look for all your favorite cartoon characters to make their debut as giant balloons. It remains an event not to be missed, especially with the city open and welcoming visitors after this crazy last 18 months!

Brooklyn Holiday Bazaar

501 Union Street

A great destination for all your holiday shopping needs is the Brooklyn Holiday Bazaar. Browse through hundreds of beautiful gifts from local makers and select national crafters. You'll find everything from paintings to handmade paper to handcrafted jewelry. Enjoy festive music and grab a bite to eat from participating vendors to get in the festive spirit. After shopping, make the most of the neighborhood with a walking tour.

Getting In: Admission to the Brooklyn Holiday Bazaar is free, and Brooklyn walking tour tickets are available with the Go New York Explorer Pass.

Visit this link for more details: Brooklyn Holiday Bazaar Event » Go Where When

Rockefeller Center Tree Lighting

Rockefeller Center

If you happen to be in town during the Thanksgiving Weekend, it's worth a trip to Rockefeller Center to see them light their iconic tree. Typically a Norwegian Spruce, this tree arrives in NYC in early November. A massive 30,000 LED lights and a Swarovski crystal star will decorate the tree. The lights are switched on during this ceremony, however! This year's ceremony will take place on Wednesday, December 4, from 7 - 10 PM. This special holiday tradition is sure to inspire the festive spirit in you. While you're in the area, why not take a tour of Rockefeller Center? You will learn all about its significance and rich history.

Getting In: It's free to watch the Rockefeller Center Tree Lighting.

Bank of America Winter Village

Bryant Park

Searching for a unique, yet affordable place to pick up holiday gifts in New York City? The Winter Village in Chelsea's Bryant Park should be on your list. There are more than 120 shops, kiosks, food stands, and more. You'll be able to find something for everyone on your list.

Don't forget about the ice-skating. Skating is free (although you need to bring your own skates), and Bryant Park's massive outdoor rink is a sight to behold. The ice-skating rink is open until March.
