Development milestones, tips, and more with age guides for ages birth to 24 years old.

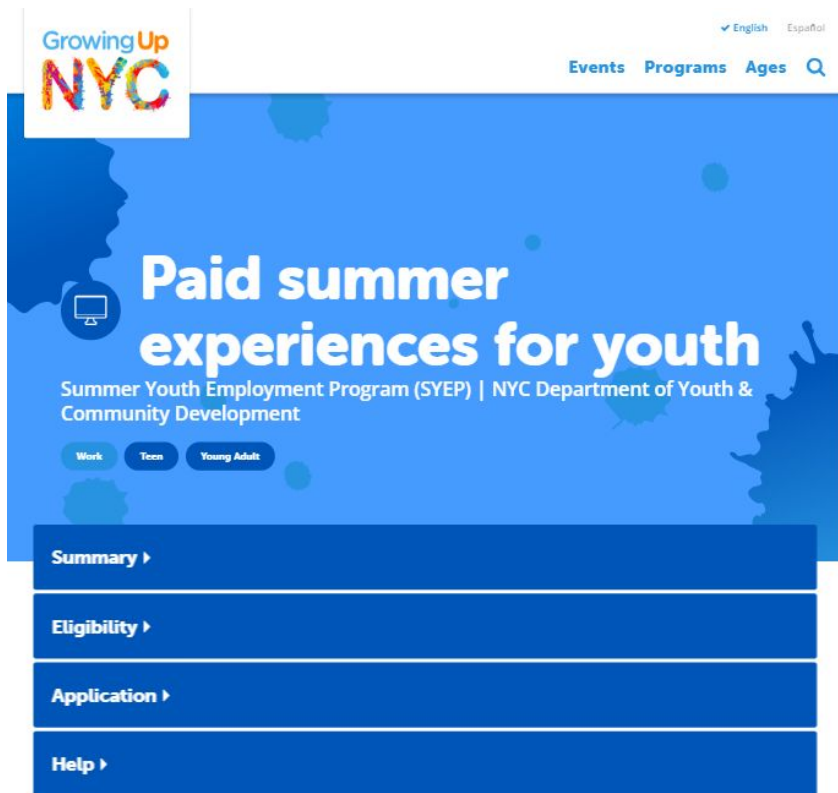

Your six-year-old's social skills are growing! As they spend more time with friends, they may also be getting better at memorizing songs and stories, learning how to add and subtract, and use other skills from school.

Scroll down to learn more about your child's development, explore resources available to your family, and find free events across NYC.

Programs

Over 80 easy-to-read programs, benefits, and services.

Categories such as:
education, health, food, cash & expenses, family services.

Summer Youth Employment Program (SYEP) connects NYC youth 14 – 24 years old with career exploration opportunities and paid work experience each summer.

✓ SYEP is now accepting applications for this summer. Apply online.

✓ The deadline to submit applications is April 10, 2020.

NYC Youth Leadership Councils (YLCs) are the place to make real change happen in your school, neighborhood, or community. Students ages 14-21 currently enrolled in high school or an equivalency program can join a YLC to partner with peer leaders and adult allies and take action on the issues that matter to you most. YLCs in all five boroughs need students like you to share your stories, passion, and ideas—you already have what it takes. Join a YLC and make a difference today!
