Love, equity, and access for young people with disabilities

OUR PRESENTER: STACY MARSHALL DIRECTOR OF PARENT & FAMILY ENGAGEMENT- SCHOOL AGE AT INCLUDENUC

Who We Are

INCLUDEnyc is the Early Childhood and School Age Family and Community Engagement Center (FACE) for all boroughs in NYC.

We are the leading source of training and information for young people ages 0-26 with known or suspected disabilities, their parents, and the professionals who support them.

Founded in 1983, INCLUDEnyc believes every young person should be fully included in school, in the workforce, in the community—and should have access to resources, services, and supports to succeed.

Deadlines

We accept on a rolling Basis but our end of the year overnight trip does require each girl to have at least 90 hours of meeting and/or community service

Trips and Community service are done on days off from school or weekends

Meeting Topics

Equality

We discuss issues of equality for gender, race, ethnicity, disabilities and class

Finances

We also prepare our girls for the real world through talking about budgeting, credit cards, debit cards, interviews, resumes, etc.

Educational

We talk about careers, interests, motivation, etc.

Environment/community

We talk about how we can help our community and become an even better one.

A peak into community service

For the month of January we celebrated Martin Luther king Junior at the Bedford central presbyterian church by helping out alpha phi alpha as they hosted their annual family community service event. We served food, organized clothing and interacted with an amazing community.
